OMG HOW DO I ENTER THIS ONE MINUTE OF GOODNESS?

One Minute of Goodness (OMG) is simple (Hint: It's in the name). Just do these 4 steps

1. Make a One Minute (or as close as you can) video of some good event/action/thing/person happening in your region/town/school/club/house etc. Somewhere in your Video
 - a. At least 1 person must shout out OMG
 - b. Say who you are, what you are showcasing and why it's good.
2. Post to your Facebook/Twitter/Instagram account and
 - a. make it public so we (and your friends) can see/share it.
 - b. Add these hashtags #scienceweek #goodnessfestival #oneminuteofgoodness
3. Share others OMG videos. Find them by searching for the #hashtags above.
4. Like and share the Goodness Festival Facebook Page
www.facebook.com/GoodnessFestival/

IM STUCK WHAT CAN I VIDEO?

Good things that are in or happening in our region. It doesn't have to be professional, it just has to be from the heart.

Here are some ideas but don't let them limit you.

- Recycling some paper or plastic or using reusable bags. Picking up rubbish.
- A frog pond or vegetable patch
- Saving some water or energy
- Doing some exercise, playing some sport
- Our local natural wonders (Foreshore, Chapman River Park, Bushwalking, Ellendale Pool, Southgate Dunes, Rivers, Ocean)
- Our local attractions (Street Art, Art Gallery, Museum, Sydney Memorial)
- Come to a Goodness Festival event and make a video.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

OMG is designed to promote the Goodness Festival with a focus on National Science Week, along with the general principles of science, sustainability and innovation. This is a non-for-profit organisation, so no fees are charged for entry and all prizes have been donated to promote goodness within the community.

No video provided by competition entrants represent the views or business of Goodness, or associated organisations (Scinapse, Pollinators).

Entry into the OMG competition is open to anyone. Organisers of the competition are not eligible to win prizes. The competition has 2 separate draws. Entries for each draw must be uploaded before the listed date for each draw to be considered eligible for the associated prizes. More than one winner may be selected for each draw. Winners will be selected by a panel of 3 Goodness Festival Organising Committee Members. Winners will be notified and also announced via social media. The committee's decision will be final. No further discussion about entries will be had after the winners are announced.
